by cultivating community, practicing hope, repairing harm, and doing justice as Jesus did.*

Bold print indicates congregation in unison

We are grateful to be gathered here in the Almond Creek-James River watershed, which we share with a diversity of plants and creatures, including the flowering dogwood, butterfly milkweed, striped bass, northern cardinal, and red fox.

We acknowledge that this land is the traditional territory of the Powhatan Confederacy. May we nurture our relationship with all our neighbors, and our shared responsibilities to this watershed where we gather today.

GATHERING

*The act of assembling in Jesus' name bears witness to the Church's identity and mission as Christ's body in the world.
Gather your thoughts and feelings. Entrust yourself to God's saving grace.*

Call to Worship

[by Gill Le Febre, adapted]

One: As darkness gives way to light and winter sleep to fresh beginnings,

All: we come to be reminded of God's love for us.

One: Like the green shoots of renewed life, stirring beneath the soil,

All: we welcome an awakening of God's word in our lives.

One: In this time of reflection and repentance,

All: we affirm our identity and claim our security as children of God.

+ Hymn 806 I'll Praise My Maker

Confession of Sin and Pain

Leader: All:

of - fer - ing for - give - ness, com - fort and joy. — joy.

1. (lis - ten) 2.

Eternal God, we ask your forgiveness for the times when we have chosen badly, opting for the easy way of habit and social convention, rather than the higher and harder ways of Jesus. We confess that sometimes our choices have been made from rank selfishness, with little concern for those around us, even for those who love us dearly. We ask your forgiveness for times we have put off decisions, hesitating and avoiding choice until opportunity has gone by. We confess also that we have sometimes made outwardly good decisions for the wrong reasons, driven by selfish motives.

Holy God, Savior and Friend, we thank you that long before we face up to ourselves and frame our confessions, your mercy in Jesus is waiting for us. We rest our mortal lives in your immortal life, allowing your grace, mercy, and peace to cleanse, refresh, and straighten us.

One: Breathe into our humanity, loving God, that we may fully live.

(After each petition, take a deep breath in ... and let it out.)

Breathe your Spirit into our minds, that our decision-making may be pure and wise. BREATHE.

Breathe your Spirit onto our lips, that our speech may bear witness to life and light and holy joy. BREATHE.

Breathe your Spirit onto our hands, that in their busyness they may serve you before all else. BREATHE.

Breathe your Spirit onto our feet, that we may tread this earth with gentleness and respect. BREATHE.

We pray all these things through Christ Jesus, our liberator.

All: Amen.

Assurance of Forgiveness and Healing

WORD

Where the scriptures are read and proclaimed, Jesus Christ, the living Word, is present by the power of the Holy Spirit.

God's Spirit also evokes our response. Through singing, affirmation, and prayer, with the help of God's Spirit, we discern Jesus Christ, receive Christ's grace, and resolve to follow Christ's way.

Prayer for Illumination

Scripture

Luke 10:25-30 (NRSVUE)

An expert in the law stood up to test Jesus. "Teacher," he said, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?" He said to him, "What is written in the law? What do you read there?" He answered, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind and your neighbor as yourself." And he said to him, "You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live."

But wanting to vindicate himself, he asked Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" Jesus replied

+ Affirmation of Faith

[from the Iona Abbey Worship Book]

We believe in God in whom is power and compassion

We believe in the Creator, who gave birth to the universe, set solar systems dancing in space, shaped molecules and mountains, and conceived beauty beyond our imagining.

God's power topples tyrants and brings down walls of separation;

God's love embodies the tenderness of a mother and father, encouraging and caring for us.

We believe in Jesus, born in obscurity in an occupied land - a human being, vulnerable to hunger, thirst, persecution and grief.

He understood the power of love and confronted the powers of evil, spoke the truth with courage and clarity, forgave his enemies and changed lives.

In his living, dying, and rising again he showed love strong enough to save the world.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, who sustains, comforters, and empowers us, opens the scriptures, opens our minds, and illuminates earth's darkness. Amen.

We are one in Christ Jesus, all one body, all one spirit, all together.

Somos uno en Cristo, somos uno, somos uno, uno solo.

We share one God, one mighty Lord, one abiding faith, one binding love,

One single baptism, one Holy Comforter, the Holy Spirit, uniting all.

EUCHARIST

Though we are not sharing the bread and cup today, we remember with thanksgiving (eukharistia) the grace (kharis) with which Jesus welcomes us to sit at his table, eat what will satisfy our deepest hungers, and feed others as we've been fed. We offer ourselves in response to Christ's wonderful offering of love.

Offertory

From Cantata Misericordium

Benjamin Britten

*Chorus: Ecce, tertius apparet – sed languescit spes
auxilii: nam propior videtur esse contemptus Samaritanus. Quid interest Samaritani Iudaei negotia suscipere molesta?*

Viator: Miserere mei, hospes, afflicti.

Samaritanus: Ah, di boni! Quid audio? Quid ante pedes iam video? Iacet hic nescioquis immania passus. Age, primum haec vulnera adligem. Ubi mihi vinum? Ubi oleum? Sursum, iam susum imponam te in tergum iumentum mei.

Chorus: Vincit, ecce, vincit tandem misericordia. Hic pedes ipse comitatur eum in deversorium.

*Samaritanus: Ohe, caupo, siquid audis: aperi portam.
Viatores adfero a latronibus spoliatus. Aperi, quaeso...Benigne.*

|Para nobis cenam, caupo, para cubiculum, amabo.

|Mihi cras abundum erit. Cura hunc dum

|convalescat. Dabo tibi duos denarios.

*|Viator: Iam rursu revivesco. Iam spes in animum redit. Optime hospitum, quis es? Unde es gentium?
Salvus quomodo tibi gratias referam dignas?*

Samaritanus: Quis sim, unde sim gentium, parce quaerere. Dormi nunc, amice, dormi: iniuriarum obliviscere.

*Chorus: Mitis huius adiutoris qui servavit saucium
Proximumque sibi duxit hospitem incongnitum,
O sis similes existant ubicumque gentium!
Morbus gliscit, Mars incedit, fames late superat;
Sed mortales, alter quando alterum sic sublevat,
E dolore procreata caritas consociat.*

Tenor et Barytonus: Quis sit proximus tuus iam scis.

Chorus: Vade et tu fac similiter.

–Patrick Wilkinson, for the Red Cross Centenary

Chorus: See now, a third is appearing – but hope of relief is fading: for from near he is seen to be only a despised Samaritan. What interest has a Samaritan in taking up the troublesome affairs of a Jew?

Traveler: Pity me, stranger, pity me: I am suffering.

Samaritan: Ah, good gods! What do I hear? What do I see before my feet? Here lies someone who has been horribly treated. Come, first let me bind up these wounds. Where is my wine, my oil? Up, now I will lift you up on to the back of my beast.

Chorus: Triumph! Mercy is triumphing at last. This man is accompanying him to an inn himself on foot.

Samaritan: Ho, innkeeper, do you hear? Open the door. I have with me a traveler who has been stripped by robbers. Open, please...Thank you.

|Prepare us supper, innkeeper, and a room, please.

|Tomorrow I shall have to go on. Look after this man |till he gets better. I will give you two denarii.

|Traveler: I am coming back to life again. Hope is reviving in me. Best of strangers, who are you? From what people do you come? I am saved, and how can I thank you worthily?

Samaritan: Who I am, and what my people, ask no more. Sleep now, my friend, sleep: forget your injuries.

Chorus: O that people like this gentle helper, who saved a wounded man and treated as his neighbor an unknown stranger, may be found all over the world. Disease is spreading, war is stalking, famine reigns far and wide. But when one mortal relieves another like this, charity springing from pain unites them.

Tenor and Baritone: Who your neighbor is, now you know.

Chorus: Go and do likewise

Ken Wood, tenor (Samaritan). Dean Angert, baritone (traveler)

+ Doxology (Hymn 607)

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise Christ, all people here below;
praise Holy Spirit evermore; praise Triune God, whom we adore.

+ Prayer of Thanksgiving and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Our worship and service do not end with the postlude; we go forth to love and serve God in our daily lives.
